Supporting News From Nowhere

News From Nowhere Radical & Community Bookshop exists to provide books & information that empower people to bring about social justice & change in the world. As a local bookshop, we aim to offer friendly, helpful service, able to obtain all sorts of books for our customers.

We are a not-for-profit workers' co-operative

Rising overhead costs, seasonal slumps in trade, and competition from big bookshop chains and supermarkets all mean that we struggle financially for much of the year.

If you are able, please consider the following ways to help:

- ◆ Donations – whether financial or as unwanted books that we can sell second-hand
- ◆ Interest-free Loans – long term or short term,
- ◆ Credit Loan – repaid in books & other purchases
- ◆ Regular Standing Order – e.g. £5 or £10 per month, as a donation or a credit loan (form overleaf)

And last, but definitely not least, buy from us and recommend us to your friends, family & co-workers! Like all local shops, we depend entirely upon the loyal support of our customers

THANK YOU!

More information

Loans – we can either sort out repayment terms at the time you lend the money, or leave it open-ended for you to ask us for it back when you need it (giving us as much notice as you can). Wherever possible we would make repayments in instalments, and try to time large repayments for our busiest time of year, in the autumn & winter.

Credit loans – basically, you are simply paying up front for future purchases. Any time you want to buy anything from the bookshop just tell us that you have a credit loan with us, and we will deduct the value of your purchases from the balance, and let you know how much is left.

If you set up a regular standing order payment, please let us know by filling in and returning the form below – this is essential if your standing order is for a credit loan.
